

Mission Statement

Liberal Arts, Communications, and Social Sciences Division

The Mission of the Liberal Arts, Communications, and Social Sciences Division is dedicated to a quality education preparing students for transfer to a four-year institution or to directly enter the workforce. The division challenges students to deepen their critical thinking skills while fostering creativity and personal awareness. The division provides students with a participatory environment which encourages intellectual growth and self-awareness.