Rule: The College catalog contains official announcement of College rules, programs of study and courses offered for the period of publication. The College reserves the right to repeal, revise or amend the information contained in the College catalog.

Procedures:

Interim catalog addenda may be issued during the life of the catalog publication. It is the responsibility of the student to read and abide by the catalog and any of the subsequent addenda that may be published. Such addenda will be available at the Campus Service Center of each of the College's campuses and are on reserve in each campus Learning Resource Center.

In addition, the catalog and any addenda are available on the Web at www.wvnorthern.edu.

Requirements:

Students enrolling at West Virginia Northern Community College must follow the program requirements listed in the catalog in effect at the time of matriculation into their program (provided graduation requirements are completed within five years). Students have the option of meeting program requirements in a later catalog, provided all requirements of the later catalog are met. Students must notify the College by submitting a change of major card to the Student Service Center to use the requirements of a later catalog.
