

Comparison Report
2009 – 2012
Northern Middle College High School
at
West Virginia Northern Community College

COLLEGE 101

As part of the College 101 curriculum, students are given the Asset test at the beginning of the year and are reassessed at the end of the school year. The results of the Asset test are as follows:

2009-2010	2010-2011	2011-2012
57% of students increased their reading skills	71% of students increased their reading skills	60% of students increased their reading skills
57% of students increased their writing skills	71% of students increased their writing skills	50% of students increased their writing skills
87% of students increased their number skills	71% of students increased their number skills	90% of students increased their number skills
100% of students increased their Algebra skills	100% of students increased their Algebra skills	80% of students increased their Algebra skills
57% of students increased their scores enough to test out of Math 86	55% of students increased their scores enough to test out of Math 92	70% of students increased their scores enough to test out of Math 92
85% of students increased their scores enough to test out of Math 92	44% of students increased their scores enough to test out of Math 93	50% of students increased their scores enough to test out of Math 93

MAKE UP COURSES and CREDIT COURSES

Number of College Credit Hours Taken By Middle College Students

2009-2010.....	83
2010-2011.....	163
2011-2012.....	186